What can you remember about the Czech Republic?

The Czech Republic lies in central (střední) Europe – it is called the heart (srdce) of Europe. It covers an area (plochu) of nearly 79 thousand square kilometres and has 10,3 million inhabitants (obyvatel). Our country has four neighbour (sousední) states. In the north it is Poland, in the south Austria, Slovakia in the east and Germany in the west. The country consists of three main parts - Bohemia, Moravia and Silesia.

The Czech Republic doesn't have any seacoast (mořské pobřeží), but it has many rivers (řek).

Fish are farmed here, especially carps (kapři).

What can you remember about the Czech Republic?

The terrain of our country is quite hilly (kopcovitý, pahorkatý).

Mountain ranges (pohoří) form our country's natural border.

The highest mountains in the Czech Republic are the Giant mountains (Krkonoše), with the highest peak Sněžka, 1602 metres high. Other mountain ranges are : Šumava on the western border, Jizerské and Orlické mountains on the border with Poland or Beskydy and Jeseníky in Moravia.

What can you remember about the Czech Republic?

In the Czech Republic there are many places of interest, such as the Gothic Křivoklát castle, first mentioned in the 12th century. Charles IV. founded another famous castle - Karlštejn, which was the king's favourite castle. Lány is a Renaissance chateau (zámek), our first president, Tomáš G. Masaryk, was buried (pohřben) there. Since then, this place has been the representative seat (sídlo) of Czech presidents. My favourite place in our country is _____, it is a place famous for _____.

What can you remember about the Czech Republic?

The Czech Republic is traditionally an industrial (průmyslová) country. The main industrial areas are located (umístěny) in northern (severní) part of the country. Fuel (palivový) and energy (energetický) industries are well developed (rozvinuty). Other industries are metallurgy (hutnictví), machine tool industry (strojnictví), chemical (chemický), construction (stavební) and consumer (spotřební) industry. Czech beer (pivo) and wine (víno) have long tradition and popularity both at home and abroad. Our country is rich in minerals (nerostné suroviny) – black and brown fuel (uhlí), sand for glass making (výrobu skla) or iron (železná) ore are mined here.

What can you remember about the Czech Republic?

The lowlands (nížiny) are important for agriculture (zemědělství). Sugar beet (cukrová řepa), sweetcorn (kukuřice), fruit and vegetables (zelenina) are grown there.

The head of the state is the President. The executive power is in the hands of the Prime Minister (ministrský předseda) and his ministers (ministři). The legislative power belongs to the Parliament of two chambers – the Senate (senát) and the House of Deputies.

The currency (měna) is the Czech Crown.

Prague is the Capital (hlavní město) of the Czech Republic and also the largest city (1,5 million inhabitants). The second largest is Brno. Karlovy Vary is the most famous of our spa (lázeňských) towns. Other large cities are for example _____, _____, _____, _____.
